PREFACE

For the sixtieth time Holbrook's City Directory goes to its patrons, and it shows, in a most comprehensive way, the status of the city as to growth and population, change in business, etc. The year has not witnessed the increase in population that is usual and the cause is chargeable largely to the financial disturbances that have prevailed here, as well as throughout the country, as it has checked the usual overflow of people from New York, a very large percentage of which come to our city.

It has been a quiet year in building, notwithstanding which fact there are more dwellings vacant than there has ever been at any time in the city's history; more than two thousand unoccupied dwelling places within the city limits were returned by our men on the recanvass. At the very moderate estimate of five persons to each these would accommodate no less than ten thousand individuals, or sufficient to house a very respectable city.

Greatly increased facilities for rapid transit were developed the past twelve months, benefits of which are beginning to be felt in the more remote sections, and as soon as there is improvement in business circles it is safe to predict that there will be growth in these parts that will surpass anything of the kind in the past.

With each year the difficulties of making an accurate directory are multiplied. The number who refuse to give their names to canvassers exceeds, to a great amount, the calculations of the most conservative mind, but by the use of a little stratagem most of these are obtained. There is another class, however, that is much more difficult to deal with; they are those who blandly receive the canvasser and apparently acquiesce in all of his requests, but instead of giving in their real names and genuine occupation, they deliberately prevaricate, with the intention of hiding their identity completely, fondly believing that they escape some of the duties devolving upon citizenship, such as jury duty, poll tax, etc., not realizing that they are scarcely ever successful. Very frequently these names are obtained, but in some instances they are not and must be put down in the class of errors that are unavoidable.

Below is given the number of names that are to be found in this directory under each separate letter of the alphabet:

A, 1,589; B, 5,950; C, 4,278; D, 3,421; E, 1,223; F, 2,739; G, 2,914; H, 5,041; I, 198; J, 1,205; K, 3,208; L, 2,772; M, 6,126; N, 1,280; O, 1,040; P, 2,267; Q, 143; R, 3,245; S, 7,188; T, 1,921; U, 213; V, 1,173; W, 3,697; Y, 279; Z, 379. Total, 63,489.
